As we commemorated the Ruby Anniversary of College, it was a very special year consisting of lots of celebrations, loads of masti, laughter, fun, hectic class schedules, long practicals, grilling vivas and out-of-classroom real time learning. You all worked very hard, transforming yourself in fine professionals. We have reminisced your entire journey in this year book, capturing your various moods, many bubbly and effervescent while some serious and pensive but all very beautiful. The creative team has put in great efforts presenting an eloquent flashback of your happening stay here.

An important and a very special part of your life culminates here and you should all be proud of yourself. Deliver the best of your professional knowledge to the society and always do good.
